

ECOLOGICAL ENGINEER/WATER RESOURCES ENGINEER

Cascadia Bioregion
Portland, Oregon or Seattle metropolitan area, Washington

Years of Experience: 5+ years consulting experience
Compensation Commensurate with Experience

Biohabitats seeks an engineer with a solid foundation in the principles of stream, wetland, and ecological restoration and applied experience leading complex restoration projects from concept through construction documents, permits, and implementation.

The Ecological Engineer/Water Resources Engineer will support a variety of public, private, and institutional projects throughout the Pacific Northwest region, and will have the opportunity to collaborate on restoration projects across the United States. Projects, which will vary in type, scale, and complexity, will include stream and wetland restoration and enhancement, river and stream bank stabilization, fish passage improvements, flood hazard analysis, stormwater management design, shoreline and coastal restoration design, and the development of integrated ecological restoration and engineering designs. Leadership skills, an enthusiasm for collaboration, and a passion for the environment is essential.

Biohabitats offers a collaborative, cohesive, and compassionate work environment. We seek team members who share a passion for the environment and seek to make a difference through innovative project work with great clients. We encourage our employees to enjoy activities of all kinds in support of a healthy work-life balance.

AMERICAN INDIAN OR ALASKA NATIVE (not Hispanic or Latino)

A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America), and who maintain tribal affiliation or community attachment.

TWO OR MORE RACES (not Hispanic or Latino)

All persons who identify with more than one of the above five races.

INDIVIDUAL WITH DISABILITIES

Defined as a person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of his or her major life activity(s), (2) has a record of such impairment(s), or (3) is regarded as having such impairment(s). A qualified employee or applicant with a disability is an individual who, with or without reasonable accommodations, can perform the essential functions of the job in question.

SPECIAL DISABLED VETERAN

Defined as a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military ground, naval, or air service and (1) who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability, or (2) who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) for certain disabilities under laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (i.e., disabilities rated at 30 percent or more, or at 10 or 20 percent if the veteran has been determined to have a serious employment handicap).

VETERAN OF THE VIETNAM ERA

Defined as a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service, any part of whose service was during the period August 5, 1964 through May 7, 1975, who (1) served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days and was discharged or released with other than a dishonorable discharge, or (2) was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability. "Vietnam era veteran" also includes any veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service who served in the Republic of Vietnam between February 28, 1961 and May 7, 1975. NOTE: JVA eliminated Vietnam era veterans as a protected category under VEVRAA. However, most Vietnam era veterans will continue to be protected under other categories.

NEWLY SEPARATED VETERAN

A "newly separated veteran," with respect to federal contracts and subcontracts entered into before December 1, 2003, means any veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military ground, naval, or air service during the one-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty. With respect to federal contracts and subcontracts entered into on or after December 1, 2003, "newly separated veterans" means any veteran who served on active duty during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty.

OTHER PROTECTED VETERAN

Defined as any other veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military ground, naval, or air service during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized, other than a special disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or recently separated veteran.
